Poor response for Palike Adalat

Deputy Mayor Dr. G. Roopa receiving an application from a citizen at the Palike Adalat this morning.

- Deputy Mayor Dr. Roopa called for inauguration at the last minute
- Empty chairs, vacant counters under German tents greet public
- Officers bring their colleagues from office sections to stand at counters
- Public announcements in localities of all 65 MCC Wards from tomorrow

Mysuru, Nov. 14 (RKB&BCT)- The ambitious plan of the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) to speedily deliver Government services to the residents of Mysuru through 'Palike Adalat' from Nov. 14 to Nov. 19 ran into rough weather on the very first day due to poor public response.

Though arrangements were made to receive applications from the public and five counters were set up with German tents with places for the public to be seated, only a handful of people came to address their grievances.

So pathetic was the scene that the organisers had to bring the staff from the MCC Office sections to stand in a queue for media persons to take photos. At one point, there were more press persons to cover the event than the public.

The Adalat was poorly managed and there was no one even to inaugurate the MCC initiative. Mayor Shivakumar was attending to his family responsibilities as his mother passed away on Nov. 12 while MCC Commissioner G. Lakshmikantha Reddy was occupied in a video-conference till 2 pm.

When the organising officers realised that there was no one to inaugurate the Adalat at 11 am, they desperately called Deputy Mayor Dr. G. Roopa, requesting her to come and inaugurate. When media persons questioned about the lack of people at the counters and the absence of MCC administrators, the embarrassed officers admitted that there was a lapse in giving good publicity to the Adalat.

Fortunately for them, the Deputy Mayor obliged and came to the venue to inaugurate the event. There were only a handful of people at the counters even at 12.15 pm while the officers who were called in to stand in the queues to pose for photos returned to their work stations.

Five counters for grievance redressal

In all, five counters were set up at the vacant place near the MCC Election Office and they were for Khata registration, transfer, beneficiaries of Ashraya Scheme, building approval plan, Completion Report (CR) for buildings, commercial licence, applications to sanction advertisement hoardings and birth & death certificate grievances, trade licence, applications and grievances for Deendayal Antyodaya Yojana - National Urban Livelihoods Mission (DAY-NULM) and water supply and underground drainage grievances.

Former IB Officer R.N. Kulkarni murder case

MCC issues 24-hour ultimatum to pull down unauthorised structure

Kulkarni

Mysuru, Nov. 14 (RKB&DM)- The Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) this morning served an official 24-hour ultimatum to the neighbour (Madappa) of former Intelligence Bureau (IB) Officer late R.N. Kulkarni at Sharadadevinagar in T.K. Layout for razing down the illegally constructed part of his (Madappa) house adjacent to the residence of the former IB Officer.

Kulkarni was fatally knocked down by a car driven by Madappa's younger son, when he (Kulkarni) was on his usual evening stroll in Manasagangothri campus on Nov. 4.

Speaking to Star of Mysore this morning, Satyamurthy, Development Officer of MCC Zone-3, under which jurisdiction Kulkarni's house comes, said that the MCC had earlier set Nov. 12 deadline to the neighbour of Kulkarni for demolishing the illegal portion of his building. But there was delay in the MCC's action due to a series of holidays and now that the neighbour has not responded to the notice, the MCC this morning served the official 24-hour ultimatum to the family members of Madappa.

Pointing out that the MCC staff, as a first step, marked the illegal part of the house of Madappa today, Satyamurthy said that the demolition as per the marking will be done either tomorrow (Nov.15) or the day-after (Nov. 16).

All necessary preparations including keeping ready the machineries and other equipment needed for demolition have been made, he added.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

An important part in building a child's character is to teach him to concentrate. This practice should start from his childhood to get good results later. Along with the practice of concentration, the child's willpower should also be strengthened and increased. If from the age of seven, every child is taught three things — control over emotions; concentration and developing willpower — then no parent would ever complain about his children's behaviour later. These three factors help to flourish the seeds of good sanskaras, values, in the child. A child is similar to a fertile land on which it is necessary to cultivate good values and virtues.

The challenge is: How to instil such virtues in our child? The first solution to this challenge is the practice of long breathing. The child should be taught to breathe long, and he should practice it so frequently that eventually he would take 4-5 breaths in one minute. Even 5-10 minutes of such practice would bring noticeable changes in his behaviour. He will be able to control his anger and keep away from intoxicants. The natural characteristic of a person who takes long breaths is that he would be living in the present and would not entertain false happiness. The kids who are short-tempered should be made to practice long breathing regularly. Not only for kids, but this is an infallible solution for every person. Whenever one is angry, one should practice long breathing for 5-10 minutes; the anger would disappear automatically. It is a proven fact that when our breaths are short, the tendency to lose temper is more. One can never lose control if practicing long breathing. —Acharya Mahapragya in The Times of India

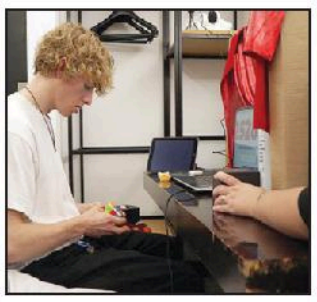
Girl getting plastic surgery since 5th grade

Tokyo: A Japanese girl sparked controversy recently after revealing that she has been getting plastic surgery since 5th grade and that she has so far spent over 10 million yen (72,000 dollars) to change her appearance.

Zirazyo_ is an up-and-coming Japanese influencer whose shot to fame came when she revealed that her current appearance is the result of plastic surgery. The young girl recently posted a video online where she claims to have had her first cosmetic procedure in the 5th grade (10 or 11 years old) and that she has been altering her appearance ever since, spending over 10 million yen in the process. Zirazyo_ confessed that she has been struggling with criticism for her plastic surgery her entire life, but that she is fighting to break the stigma that plastic surgery is a negative thing.

Solves 6,931 Rubik's cubes in 24 hours



London: A 20-year-old Rubik's cube enthusiast in Britain broke a Guinness World Record by solving 6,931 of the puzzles in 24 hours. George Scholey livestreamed his attempt from a London hotel room as he took on the record for most rotating puzzle cubes solved in 24 hours. Scholey, whose attempt was timed to coincide with Guinness World Records Day, solved 6,931 cubes in 24 hours, breaking the record of 5,800, which was set by Eric Limeback of Canada in 2013.

Scholey is the reigning cubing champion in Britain and is ranked as one of the top-rated speedcubers in the world by the World Cube Association.

"The hardest part of the record was hitting the 12 hours mark," Scholey told Guinness World Records and added that he was disappointed to not make it to 7,000.

REALLY...?

- Kho-kho or the 'game of chase', was earlier played in Maharashtra. It is one of the most popular traditional Indian sports. During ancient times, it was played on raths (chariots) and was called Rathera. When Akhil Maharashtra Shareerika Shikshan Mandal published the rules of the game officially in 1935, kho-kho became popular. Under the Kho-Kho Federation of India, the first kho-kho championship was organised in 1959. In 1982, it was included in the Indian Olympic Association.

VOICE OF THE READER

Sorry Kulkarni Sir, We Betrayed You

Sir,

I would like to pay my last respects to the departed personality of our city in this way: "In your Service in IB, you dared the deadly head hunters in Nagaland, worked through disturbances on North East in most blood chilling period, protected the Nation from many deadly attacks of Terror Cells, daringly contributed to the safety and security of our motherland, by sacrificing your family life... But at the end, we failed to protect you from a street-side thug, we dishonoured your entire service and let you meet an unexpected painful end... We betrayed you Kulkarni Sir, we hang our head in shame."

R.N. Kulkarni

Ten years back, there was an editorial and book review in Star of Mysore on the classic book by Mr. Kulkarni, titled "Sin of National Conscience," the copies of which were hardly sold. KBG wrote how disappointed the writer Mr. Kulkarni was. I called up Star of Mysore Office and collected the phone number of Kulkarni, visited his place and collected few copies of the book. I had an hour-long interaction also with Kulkarni, in which he shared some of his experiences which common people like me never ever imagine.

The book, more or less his professional experience, gives us a small insight to unheard, unseen and unsung world of Intelligence Bureau and its operations, from the date of Smt. Indira Gandhi till Sri. P.V. Narasimha Rao. It's a great journey of an upright and honest officer who stands up to his professional ethics and works through rough weather of politics, espionage, betrayal and what not.

Kulkarni Sir, you handled most delicate situations and managed out of danger. You also lived with North East militancy in their fierce head hunting era, you stared the death at its eyes and worked daringly for our motherland.

But at the end we failed to honour you. Mysuru City Corporation should stand as co-accused in this tragedy— they never respected any of your appeal and complaints. They happily saw the violation of their own laws and dragged their feet endlessly which led to this tragedy.

They abetted this murder through the violator of law. They never heeded to the lawful complaints of a proud son of our Nation and did not take action on violator of law. This encouraged the law violator to go one step ahead and he eliminated Kulkarni.

I request our City Police Commissioner to make MCC as co-accused in this murder trial.

Next is Judiciary. The Delay in Justice is Denial of Justice. We lost an upright officer for a petty matter, which could have been resolved in a short period.

Finally, let us salute Mysuru City Police Commissioner and entire team which cracked the case so fast and brought credit to the Mysuru Police.

Crocodile kills and drags calf into water hole at Yele Thota

● Operation to catch the croc continues

Water being drained out from the water hole at Yele Thota to help capture the crocodile. Picture right: Carcass of a calf (circled in red) found in water hole.

Mysuru, Nov. 14 (MTY&KS)- A huge crocodile, spotted in the Raja Kaluve near Yele Thota on Oct. 15 afternoon which resurfaced again on Oct. 29, causing tension among the public was spotted again at Yele Thota near Ramanuja Road 9th Cross in city.

Though the Forest Department staff made attempts to capture the huge reptile, they were unable to capture it as the crocodile used to escape underwater. It was also spotted basking in sun on the bridge near Yele Thota causing fear and tension among the public especially people living in the surroundings of Yele Thota.

Yesterday, a carcass of a partially devoured calf was found in the water hole at Yela Thota and it is suspected that the crocodile may have killed the calf and dragged it into the water. A few persons said that they saw the crocodile attacking the calf and dragging it into the water and informed the Forest Department officials fearing that the huge reptile may attack people.

The Forest staff, who arrived at the spot with three water pumps, began pumping out the water from the water hole in an effort to capture the crocodile, which had disappeared into the water.

The efforts to pump out the water, which began in the afternoon, went on till late in the evening. As the entire water could not be pumped out as drain water kept on flowing into the water hole and as it had become dark, the operation was stopped.

The Forest staff warned the public not to venture near the water hole and a few staff were deployed to observe if the crocodile comes back to eat the calf. Forest officials said that if the MCC drains out the water completely, it would be very helpful for us to capture the reptile.

Range Forest Officer (RFO) K. Surendra, Deputy RFOs Venkatachala and Sanjeev Patil, two Forest Guards, four Forest Watchers, crocodile keepers from Mysuru Zoo and more than eight members from the MCC's Abhaya team took part in the operation.

The operation to capture the crocodile continued today too. As drain water has again collected in the water hole, the Forest staff have stayed put at the spot and were trying to locate the crocodile, when we went to the press. The public have been urged to inform the Forest officials if they spot the crocodile again.

Tigress snared to death

Forest Department begins combing operation using tamed elephants to rescue three orphaned cubs

H.D. Kote, Nov. 14 (MTY&KS)- The Forest Department officials have begun the combing operation to rescue the three orphaned cubs of the tigress, known as 'Nayanji Katte Female,' which died after getting caught in the snare laid by hunters to hunt wild boars. The combing operation, which began yesterday, was stopped in the evening as it had got dark and it resumed this morning.

The tigress is said to have died about a week back and its decomposed carcass was found by the locals who informed the Forest Department officials.

The Forest staff spotted two cubs and are searching for one more cub. The Department have installed over 30 CCTV cameras in the vicinity of Taraka Dam, near Antharasanthe Range of Nagarahole Reserve Forest, where the carcass of the tigress was found.

As there is a danger of the three cubs starving to death if they are not rescued and nursed, the Forest Department personnel are patrolling the core area of the forest to trace and rescue the cubs at the earliest.

Over 75 Forest staff along with Combing Operation Specialist Abhimanyu and another tamed elephant Bheema have begun the combing operation from yesterday morning to rescue the cubs which are about 10 months old and require nursing.

A cage has also been placed at a private land, about 500 mts away from the forest area and meat pieces have also been placed inside the cage to lure the cubs.

Apart from over 30 CCTV cameras installed to find the movements of the three cubs, three cages have also been placed and a team of Forest officials and veterinarians are camping in the forest to oversee the combing operation.

Nagarahole Tiger Reserve Deputy Conservator of Forests (DCF) Harshakumar Naragunda, Antharasanthe Range Assistant Conservator of Forests (ACF) Rangaswamy, Hon. Wildlife Warden Kruthika Alanahalli, Antharasanthe Range Forest Officer (RFO) Siddaraju, D.B. Kuppe RFO Madhu, Metikuppe RFO Harshith and others are taking part in the combing operation.

Truth about Tipu must be read and told: Dr. S.L. Bhyrappa

'Muslim mindset about country must change; Democracy can survive only if truth comes out'

Mysuru, Nov. 14 (SBD,MK &BCT)- People must read about real history of Tipu Sultan and see the play based on research to understand his true nature. Truth not only must come out but also must be disseminated. If truth is not told to people, there is no way democracy can survive, said celebrated Kannada novelist and Saraswathi Samman Awardee Dr. S.L. Bhyrappa.

He was speaking after releasing the book on play 'Tipu Nija Kanasugalu' (Real Dreams of Tipu) written by Rangayana Director Addanda C. Cariappa at Bhoomigeeta in Rangayana last evening. The event was held in a packed auditorium of Rangayana where spectators had to sit on the floor for want of chairs. The proceedings were held amidst tight Police security.

"People must also read 'The Real Tipu', a researched book written by H.D. Sharma, a non-Kannadiga, which has been translated by the renowned translator Dr. Pradhan Gurudatta as 'Tipu Nija Swarupa'. This book has been reprinted 17 times and it unveils the true nature of Tipu Sultan. Likewise, many books have been written on him and his rule," he said.

Celebrated Kannada novelist and Saraswathi Samman Awardee Dr. S.L. Bhyrappa (centre) releasing the book on play 'Tipu Nija Kanasugalu' (Real Dreams of Tipu) written by Rangayana Director Addanda C. Cariappa at Bhoomigeeta in Rangayana last evening. Also seen are 'Vikrama' Editor Vrishank Bhat, social worker Vadiraj of Samarasya Vedike, Addanda Cariappa, Mysuru-Kodagu MP Pratap Simha, writer Rohit Chakratheertha and Shashank Bhat of Ayodhya Publication.

Change in mindset needed

"As Dr. B.R. Ambedkar himself said, however good a Constitution might be, democracy depends on how the Constitution is put into practice. When the country was partitioned, a question arose whether the nation is important or the religion. As a result, a separate nation was carved out for Muslims, based on their religion," he said.

"While dividing the country, it was strongly believed that those Muslims who stayed back in India would respect the sentiments of its majority community and that they would be our own and similar would be the case in Pakistan. But when it comes to issues like Babri Masjid, Kashi, Gyanvapi Mosque and Tipu Sultan, the stand taken by Muslims is in accordance with their religion and they have refused to accept the majority sentiment, facts and reality. In these issues, for them, religion is more important than the country. When it comes to accepting truth, Muslims must change their mindset," Dr. Bhyrappa said.

Tipu had introduced Persian lingo in administration and he cannot be considered as pro-Kannada as being touted by his supporters. He also changed the names of many towns and cities. "Usually, Jayantis celebrate the births of saints, poets, social reformers and revolutionary rulers. I wonder how Tipu Jayanti was introduced despite knowing his true nature," he said.

Vote bank in mind: MP

Mysuru-Kodagu MP Pratap Simha said that those people who complain about the imposition of Hindi do not speak a word about Tipu imposing Persian language in administration and they still diligently follow the names of places and thousands of Persian words in administration given by Tipu. "Why the followers of Tipu and so-called Kannada activists do not speak against this," he asked.

"One can understand that MLA Tanveer Sait has the vote bank in mind while speaking about erecting a Tipu statue. But why is the statue inevitable for MLC A.H. Vishwanath? Modern Mysuru has nothing to do with Tipu. Instead, the Wadiyars have contributed immensely to the growth and prosperity of the entire region. I will relentlessly work to honour their memory," Pratap Simha said.

Conversion of family elder by Tipu

Claiming that the play 'Tipu Nija Kanasugalu' was based on letters of Tipu and other historical documents, author Addanda Cariappa said that these public documents and books unmask Tipu Sultan who has been valorised by ideologically-driven historians and so-called left-liberal politicians.

"Thousands of Kodava families were converted by Tipu and those who disobeyed were killed and tortured. In fact, an ancestor of my family was forcibly converted by Tipu Sultan. The Brahmins of Melukote still do not celebrate Deepavali because it is on that day they were massacred by Tipu. Incidents like these prompted me to write this historical and fact-based play," Cariappa said.

Social worker Vadiraj of Samarasya Vedike, writer Rohit Chakratheertha, Shashank Bhat of Ayodhya Publication, Vikrama Editor Vrishank Bhat and others were present.

Rangayana Director Addanda C. Cariappa's book on play 'Tipu Nija Kanasugalu' placed in a basket of flowers being brought to stage on a 'pallaki' by men dressed in soldier's attire of Tipu period.

Will bring a Court stay on Tipu's play: Tanveer Sait

Mysuru, Nov. 14 (MTY&DM)- Even as controversy rages over Rangayana Director Addanda C. Cariappa's play on Tipu titled 'Tipu Nija Kanasugalu,' Congress MLA from NR Constituency Tanveer Sait said that he will move the Court seeking a stay on staging of the play.

Tanveer Sait

Speaking to reporters on Saturday, Tanveer Sait said that Tipu was a great warrior who fought for the country's freedom. Accusing Cariappa of scripting the book on false notions and perceptions, Sait said that the people of the State know the contributions and sacrifices made by Tipu Sultan.

Maintaining that he does not have a full understanding of the content of the book as yet, Sait said that Cariappa's work is based on the notion that Tipu attacked Kodagu. "I will chalk out a further course of action after learning about the full contents of the book on which the play is based," he said.

Referring to his statement on installation of a 100 ft. tall Tipu statue, Sait asserted that Tipu was a patriot who fought against the British. "It is certain that we will install the statue. However, the place of installation — Mysuru or Srirangapatna — will be decided in due course," he added.

"Though Islam prohibits idol worship, I am forced to make a Tipu statue as some communal elements are misleading the public. The statue work will be taken up only after consulting Islamic religious leaders and leaders of all communities who support Tipu. But the Congress has no role in the Tipu statue," Sait affirmed.

National Library Week begins

Busts of Nalwadi and Prof. S.R. Ranganathan unveiled at City Central Library

Mysuru, Nov.14 (RKB&DM)- The National Library Week (Nov.14 to 20) began at the City Central Library, its branches across the city and in the district.

Deputy Commissioner Dr. K.V. Rajendra inaugurated the Week by lighting the lamp in City Central Library at People's Park in Nazarbad here this morning.

Speaking on the occasion, Dr. Rajendra said that the National Library Week is being celebrated in India since 1968 with an objective of enhancing public awareness about Libraries.

Pointing out that the Week is an annual celebration highlighting the valuable role Libraries, Librarians and Library workers play in transforming lives and strengthening our communities, he said that Libraries and Librarians have made significant contributions to the society. It is also hoped that the Week would motivate people to read and to support our Libraries, he added.

Ramesh Narasaiah, Deputy Commisioner of Commercial Taxes, Mysuru, delivered a lecture on the use of Libraries for candidates preparing for competitive exams and as well as for students in their academics.

Marking the occasion, MLA Nagendra unveiled the busts of Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar and Prof. S.R. Ranganathan, considered as the father of Library Science and offered floral tributes to them. While the bust of Nalwadi is at the entrance on the ground floor of the City Central Library, the bust of Prof. Ranganathan is at the first floor of the building. The busts, sculpted by city-based artist Rajesh are made of fibre, with each costing Rs. 90,000.

Prof. Ranganathan (1892-1972) was a Librarian and Mathematician. His most notable contributions to the field were his five laws of Library Science and the development of the first multi-faceted classification system, the Colon classification.

MLCs C.N. Manjegowda and Marithibbegowda, Deputy Mayor Dr. G.Roopa, MUDA Commissioner G.T. Dinesh Kumar, Corporator Satish, Deputy Director of Libraries B. Manjunath and others were present.

The Adalat was meant to redress all the pending applications and the plan was to receive applications with documentary evidence between Nov. 14 and 19 from 11 am to 4.30 pm and the final Adalat, where the grievances are addressed, is on Nov. 30. A control room was set up where the public could contact Mob: 94498-41196.

Submitted applications would be scrutinised and a suitable decision would be taken by Nov. 27. Those applications that have been rejected will mention the reasons for rejection as a footnote. Only those residents whose grievances have not been addressed or if there is no information regarding their application, can approach the final Palike Adalat on Nov. 30.

Following poor response on the first day of the Palike Adalat, the MCC officers have decided to make public announcements regarding the event through all garbage vehicles that move around in 65 Wards from tomorrow morning.

MCC Deputy Commissioner (Revenue) Dasegowda, Executive Engineer Ranjit Kumar, Council Secretary A. Rangaswamy and Administrative Officer Venkataram were present.

Professor's chain snatched

Mandya, Nov. 14- Miscreants have snatched a gold chain of a Professor of a private Engineering College, while she was waiting for a bus at Siddaiahana Koppal Gate in the taluk on Nov. 10.

The Professor, who lost her gold chain is 25-year-old B.H. Rakshitha, a Professor at Cauvery Engineering College in Mandya.

On Nov. 10 at about 4.30 pm, Rakshitha was waiting for a bus at Siddaiahana Koppal Gate after finishing her work to go to her house at Belagola in Srirangapatna taluk, when two persons, who came on a bike from Bengaluru side, came near her and asked her the way to Pandavapura.

When Rakshitha was guiding them, the pillion rider yanked off her 12 grams gold chain and the riders sped away.

A case has been registered at Mandya Rural Police Station.

Publication of creative literature is on the decrease: Music Varsity VC

Mysuru, Nov. 14 (PM&DM)- Maintaining that publication of creative literature is on the decline, KSGH Music and Performing Arts University Vice-Chancellor (VC) Prof. Nagesh V. Bettakote regretted the increasing trend of commercialisation in the Publishing industry.

He was speaking after releasing writer and Mysuru Mithra columnist Dr. V. Ranganath's five books at a programme organised by Samskruti Prakashana at Gopalaswamy College auditorium in Lakshmipuram here yesterday.

Bemoaning that the number of readers purchasing books is decreasing by the day, the VC attributed this to increasing influence of social media networks and stressful life of people. But despite this trend, Samskruti Prakashana has brought out the five works of Dr. Ranganath, who is also a retired Tahsildar, without looking at profitability, he said adding that the Publishing House must be lauded for bringing out such creativity filled books.

Recalling that Dr. Ranganath had presented a thesis for getting his Doctoral degree (D.Lit) when he (Nagesh) took over as the Registrar of the Music Varsity, he said that he got introduced to the writer when he started evaluating his (Ranganath) thesis.

Pointing out that Dr. Ranganath has continued his creativeness by writing books and articles even after retirement as Tahsildar, Prof.Nagesh Bettakote announced that the Music Varsity will publish Dr. Ranganath's Doctoral thesis soon.

"I have been reading Dr. Ranganath's columns that appear in Mysuru Mithra newspaper. The columns are a narrative of almost everything in life. The presence of such persons amongst us will certainly benefit the society by all counts," he said adding that he had sought the help of Dr. Ranganath and RSS leader M. Venkatram whenever the University faced administrative and functional crisis.

Mysore Palace Board Deputy Director T.S. Subramanya, in his address, said that Dr. Ranganath was his guide in all respects. Noting that Dr. Ranganath is more recognised as a writer than a former Tahsildar, he said that his intellectual thoughts is much liked by people.

Pointing out that Dr. Ranganath has written 30 books in 5 years since his retirement, Subramanya said that the writer had given some useful inputs to the district administration on Dasara programmes. Dr. Ranganth's suggestions are so clear that the authorities reckon them as most reliable, he added.

Medical Practitioner Dr. A.S. Chandrashekar said that he is a regular reader of Dr. Ranganath's columns. Contending that every article throws light on new topics, he said that Dr. Ranganath has developed such skills that he can write on any subject. The books by Dr. Ranganath are worth reading for generations to come, he added.

Referring to the controversy surrounding Tipu Sultan as an Emperor, Dr. Chandrashekar said the time has come for an introspection on whether Tipu is really from our country and also whether he was a ruler.

Stating that Dr. Ranganath in his book 'Dasara' has thrown light on the non-conduct of Dasara for several years when Tipu ruled Mysuru, he said that the book also mentions the killing of thousands of people by Tipu and the reasons for it. The book also explains the contributions of the erstwhile Mysore rulers and their promotion of Hindu culture and traditions, he added.

The five books released were — Late Rasikaputtige's 'Pitrarjitha' and 'Bedaada Baalu', both edited by Dr. Ranganath and 'Dasara' (a hand book), 'Vyshaalyave Jeevana – Sankuchitateye Marana' and 'Jeevana Preeti' (both collection of articles published in Mysuru Mithra). RSS leader M. Venkatarm, former MLCs Thontadarya and G. Madhusudhan, author Dr. V. Ranganath and others were present.

Writer regrets waning research activities in Universities

Mysuru, Nov.14 (RKB&DM)- Noted writer and critic Dr. Narahalli Balasubramanya regretted that literary research activities in Universities is waning and at the same time a research mindset among students is also fast declining.

He was speaking after releasing writer Dr. B.R. Jayakumari's work 'Berigilida Neeru' (water reaches the roots of tree), a book on the life and writings of former Folklore University Vice-Chancellor Dr. H.J. Lakkappagowda, at a programme jointly organised by SBRR Mahajana First Grade College and University of Mysore Teaching Faculty Association at Vijnana Bhavan in Manasagangothri campus here on Sunday.

Maintaining that he sees a lack of integrated and deep-rooted studies in any subject among research scholars, Dr. Balasubramanya observed that thesis guides too are short of dedication as the number of research scholars is increasing by the day. Even the Universities too have not taken this seriously, he said adding that no qualitative research articles or books on serious topics are being published either.

Noting that the work 'Berigilida Neeru' is little different from books on other such personalities, he said that the book has an integrated, studious and dedicated approach.

Bemoaning increasing corruption in politics and declining religious values, Dr. Balasubramanya said that only Samskruti and Literature can save our society from further deterioration.

Melukote MLA and former Minister C.S. Puttaraju presided. Karnataka Sahitya Academy Chairman Dr. B.V. Vasanthkumar, Mahajana Education Society President T. Muralidhar Bhagavat, Writer Dr. A. Rangaswamy, artist Prakash Chikkapalya, the book's author Dr. B.R. Jayakumari, who is also the Principal of SBRR Mahajana First Grade College, Kannada faculty Dr. H.R. Thimmegowda, Mysore Krishnamurthy and others were present.

Dr. G. Parameshwar meets Dr. H.C. Mahadevappa in Mysuru

Mysuru, Nov. 14- In a significant development in State Congress, former Deputy Chief Minister Dr. G. Parameshwar met former Minister Dr. H. C. Mahadevappa, a staunch supporter of former Chief Minister Siddharmaiah, here yesterday.

The meeting between the two top Dalit leaders of the Congress, which comes days after the election of another Dalit leader of the State, Mallikarjun Kharge as AICC President, has assumed significance in political circles.

The meeting once again brings to fore the campaign for Dalit CM in Karnataka, it is said.

During the meeting, Dr. Parameshwar is said to have sought inputs from the former Minister on getting the support of all Dalit leaders from Mysuru region for the SC/ST Conference that he has proposed to hold shortly, for which the former Deputy CM has convened a meeting of all SC/ST Legislators and leaders of the Congress at Bengaluru on Nov.20.

Police Station sought at Bogadi

Mysuru, Nov.14 (MTY&DM)- A day after Home Minister Araga Jnanendra inaugurated the new buildings of Hebbal and Alanahalli Police Stations in the city on Nov.10, Karnataka Praja Party President Dr. B. Shivanna urged the Government to establish a Civil Police Station at Bogadi in Mysuru taluk.

Addressing a press meet here on Friday (Nov. 11), Dr. Shivanna said that Bogadi village is not far from Mysuru city. Pointing out that the area currently comes under Saraswathipuram Police Station limits, he maintained that Bogadi needed a separate Police Station considering its geographical jurisdiction and population.

Contending that it will take a long time for Saraswathipuram Police personnel to reach the spot whenever crimes, accidents or other such incidents take place in the village limits, he said that Bogadi has a good network of roads and several public offices and buildings. As such, the Government must take note of Bogadi's population and jurisdiction and take measures for establishing a separate Police Station at Bogadi, which has become a necessity considering its vastness and law and order issues, he said.

Dr. Shivanna warned of staging a protest in front of Vidhana Soudha if the Government does not consider the demand for setting up of a full-fledged Civil Police Station at Bogadi. Party office-bearers A.G. Ramachandrarao, N. Harish and Mohan were present at the press meet.

'Traditional 5-Day Test Cricket is Great'

Legendary cricketer G.R. Vishwanath in conversation with Krishna Prasad

Mysuru, Nov. 14 (MK&DM)- Former cricketing great G.R. Vishwanath said that despite the advent of new forms of cricket such as One-Day (50-over a side), T20 and T10, the five-day Test cricket, which has decades of history behind it, has its own significance in the game of cricket.

G.R. Vishwanath (Gundappa Ranganath Vishwanath) was in conversation with senior Journalist Krishna Prasad, former Editor-in-Chief of Outlook magazine, at 'An evening with Legendary Cricketer G.R. Vishwanath', a talk show on his autobiography 'Wrist Assured', organised by HH Sri Srikantadatta Narasimharaja Wadiyar Foundation at Gayatri Devi Pavilion in Sri Kanteerava Narasimharaja Sports Club (Mysore Sports Club) premises on Lalitha Mahal Road on Saturday.

Recalling his cricketing years, Vishwanath said that Test cricket was the only format at the International level during his playing days. But short-duration cricket seems to have become the order of the day and it is also getting popular with each passing year.

"A cricketer's real talent and skills lie in the 5-day Test format. Those who perform well in Test cricket are found to perform well in One-Day cricket too.

Pramoda Devi Wadiyar of erstwhile Mysore royal family lighting the lamp to inaugurate the event at the Sports Club on Saturday as G.R. Vishwanath and Krishna Prasad look on.

"I made my Test debut on Nov. 20, 1969 at the Green Park Stadium in Kanpur when India played Australia. I fell for a duck in my first-ever Test innings. But that did not dishearten me and I scored 137 runs in the second innings which was inclusive of 24 boundaries. It was a very responsible knock as it saved India from defeat in the hands of the Aussies," he said, while recalling that the then Captain Mansur Ali Khan Pataudi had patted him on the back and had a word of encouragement, which spurred his confidence.

Maintaining that he has high regards for Pataudi, he said that Pataudi had good leadership qualities, which was respected by his fellow team members. "Since my debut in 1969, I played 91 Tests scoring 14 centuries and a good number of fifties till my retirement in 1983," he noted. Continuing his conversation, Vishwanath said that Pitch condition has been a topic of much debate now a days. "In my playing days I never bothered about Pitch conditions and I played with my usual self and confidence, which helped me in scoring runs. I practiced with a tennis ball on how to face fast bowling by opponents. This helped me a lot in tackling short pitched bowling, which fast bowers of my era normally did. Cricket has undergone a sea change since my playing days. Now a batter can stand covering his entire wicket, while it was not allowed during my days. Taking a batting stance that completely covers the wickets from bowler's view, will help today's batsmen to throw their bat around and score runs, which has become much easier these days. Scoring a boundary has become easier when compared to my days," he remarked.

Stressing on the need for all players to maintain physical fitness, Vishwanath said that batting skills too play an important role in scoring runs. Asserting that physical fitness is all the more important, he said that there are many instances where shorter players like him have met success.

Recalling an instance during a Ranji Trophy match when Karnataka played Andhra Pradesh in 1967, Vishwanth said that some, who termed him too short for cricket, wondered what he could do with the bat. But he proved his talent and skills by scoring 214 in that match.

He further said that he enjoyed playing Ranji Trophy matches as it helped him a lot in improving his batting skills and technique.

Taking objection to use of cricketers for commercial purposes, Vishwanath said that such commercial activities should be outside the stadiums. Observing that sporting activities is seeing a spurt across the globe with each passing year, the legendary cricketer of yesteryears said that he was happy to note that cricket has gained a lot of popularity with the introduction of shorter versions of the game.

Narrating his Chambal Valley experience when he was playing a National level match at Gwalior in 1971, Vishwanth said that some persons astride horses who had covered their faces, intercepted the players, including him, when they were on an outing on a night and tied them to a tree. Later, the then Indian Captain Pataudi had got them released. But two years later, it was learnt that Pataudi was the man behind that episode and had played a trick on them.

Pramoda Devi Wadiyar of erstwhile Mysore royal family, office-bearers of HH Sri Srikantadatta Narasimharaja Wadiyar Foundation, local cricketers and other cricket enthusiasts were present during the talk show.

England scripts history by winning T20 World Cup

Melbourne, Nov. 14- Ben Stokes slammed a gritty half-century to help England beat Pakistan by five wickets in the final and lift the T20 World Cup 2022 title yesterday. After the bowlers did well to restrict Pakistan to a low-key total of 137 runs at the Melbourne Cricket Ground (MCG) in the summit clash, Stokes bailed his team out of trouble in the run-chase and took them home with an unbeaten 52 off 49 balls.

England shattered a few records with their memorable triumph as they lifted their second T20 World Cup trophy having won their maiden title back in 2010. They equalled West Indies' record for most T20 World Cup titles with both teams now having won the trophy twice each.

England also scripted history by becoming the first team to hold both T20 and ODI World Cup trophies at the same time in men's cricket. England won ODI World Cup back in 2019 after defeating New Zealand in a thrilling final, and are the reigning world champions in the 50-over format.

WORD OF THE DAY

Sallow

Pronunciation: SAL-oh.
Meaning: Sallow means "of a grayish greenish yellow colour," and often suggests sickliness.
Origin: In Oscar Wilde's 1891 novel A Picture of Dorian Gray, Dorian's unscrupulous friend Lord Henry Wotton impresses upon the young Dorian what the process of aging will do, saying "Time is jealous of you, and wars against your lilies and your roses. You will become sallow, and hollow-cheeked, and dull-eyed." Literature of the 19th century abounds with sallow people — Charles Dickens applied the word to characters in no fewer than 12 novels — but the word had been in use with the same meaning for centuries before that literary heyday. Its synonymous Old English forbear is salu, which shares an ancestor with an Old High German word meaning "murky" as well as with a Russian word meaning "yellowish gray."
Example: "As a member of the 101st Airborne Division, Guy Whidden was among the first American paratroopers to head for Normandy in the early hours of June 6, 1944. The day before, he'd posed for a picture with a few of the other paratroopers. Sixty years later, he flashed the same impish grin, though his hair was white and his skin a little sallow." — Tamela Baker

THE ODD WORD

Salsipotent

Ruling the salt seas.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Third time's a charm

Meaning: When you use the expression 'Third time's a charm' you mean that the third time something is attempted, luck is sure to result. The phrase is also used as an actual good luck charm that's spoken just before you try something for the third time.
Origin: The origin of the phrase 'Third time's a charm' is probably ancient, as things that come in sets of three have often been associated with good luck due to their similarity with the Holy Trinity of Christianity. The first time a similar phrase was seen in print was in 1839, in Elizabeth Barrett Browning's work Letters Addressed to R.H. Horne: "The luck of the third adventure is proverbial."
Example: "I sure hope he doesn't strike out again." Answer: "Maybe he'll get lucky. After all, third time's a charm!"

Sudoku is a number-placing puzzle based on a 9x9 grid with several given numbers. The object is to place the numbers 1 to 9 in the empty squares so that each row, each column and each 3x3 box contains the same number only once. The difficulty level of the Concept is Sudoku increases from Monday to Sunday.

CRYPTOQUIP

The Cryptoquip is a substitution cipher in which one letter stands for another. If you think that X equals O, it will equal O throughout the puzzle. Single letters, short words and words using an apostrophe give you clues to locating vowels. Solution is by trial and error.
